Pekin, Feb. 2.—A number of Chinese residents have presented General Chaffee with several umbrellas. sorrowful message of sympathy, which will be a token of union on both sides of the Atlantic in mourning the death of Queen Victoria.

Joined in upholding the same ideals, Americans Join Britons in tribute to the memory of the noble womanhood which for many glorious years led the British races along the path of Christian purity and loyalty to all high duty.

In the eyes of English subjects the Queen was the head of government, church and social order. For all the world, and especially for Americans, she was the queen of true womanhood, the high priestess and menter of family sacredness. Wearing a crown with dignity, and bearing with forticude the cross of more than one pignant afficition, her life was a decree of rightcousness for forgetful and fickel humanity, and Americans of every race and inheritance have acknowledged the imperishable beneficence of her stainless example.

In days of glory and in days of pain alike she was a beacon guide to fulfillment of weighty obligation.

The Queen has gone, to be absorbed into the unfathomable mystery of divine love. The memory of that queenly life will remain forever, and if in the restless years ahead, the purity of the family and the bond of home are to be preserved by our race, that result, necessary to the family and the bond of home are to be preserved by the life of the good and great Queen Victoria.

From Contagious Disease.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 2—A mild case of scarlet fever exists in the Executive Mansion, the patient being little Dorothy Yates, the Governor's daughter, on whom symptoms of the disease were noticed yesterday by Doctor William Jayne.

As soon as the diagnosis was established, Governor and Mrs. Yates made strong deforts to remove their daughter from the mansion, but were unable to obtain proper accommodation, as no hospital in either Springfield or Jacksonville will receive patients affected with the disease.

Acting upon the advice of Doctor J. A. Egan, secretary of the State Board of Health, the child is kept in her room in the southeast end of the mansion, isolated by partition from the remainder of the house. The rooms visited by the little sufferer since the appearance of the disease have been disinfected, and as soon as the recovers that part of the building now isolated will be thoroughly disinfected also.

The attack is very mild, and speedy convalescence is looked for. Governor and Mrs. Yates will not come in contact with the child until she has fully recovered.
